Quote of the Day
Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love.  Francis of Assisi

Liturgy of the Eucharist - Offertory Procession and Preparation of the Gifts

Bread and wine recall the last supper Jesus shared with His Disciples. They ate bread and drank wine because it was their everyday food. The gifts are food, nourishment necessary for living. The bread and wine at Mass represent Catholics everyday lives and their everyday selves.

The gifts which have been brought to the altar challenge Catholics to give themselves in thanksgiving for everything that God has given them.

Tribute To Sr Leone

Last week I attended the Rosary and funeral of Sr Leone and was fortunate enough to hear stories about the positive influence Sr Leone had on so many people. An amazing lady with courage, drive and faith in God.

I have included a tribute to Sr Leone that was sent to all schools in Western Australia from the Director of CEWA:

Sr Leone Collins, who served for more than 60 years as an educator, counsellor and community leader in the Kimberley region, passed away recently. Sr Leone first started work in Catholic education in the Kimberley in 1953 at St Mary’s School Broome, where she worked until 1963, before taking up the position of Principal and class teacher at Christ the King School, Lombadina. During the 1970s Sr Leone served as the Principal of Sacred Heart School in Beagle Bay, then a teacher and later the Principal at Derby’s Holy Rosary School. She also returned to St Mary’s Broome to establish the first Pre-Primary class, before working as the Principal there. In the 1980s Sr Leone took leave to study and travel in Canada and Pakistan, before working for a stint at the Catholic Education Office. Over 1987 and 1988 she was the Principal of St John's Adult Centre Balgo and designed and taught study units for Luurnpa Catholic School Teaching Assistants. Following this she became Diocesan Director for Australian Catholic Relief, Social Justice, Adult Education Faith Development and Pontifical Mission Societies, a role that she worked in until 1996. Sr Leone was awarded the Medal of the Order of Australia in 2005, in recognition of her outstanding contributions to society as educator and counsellor, and also of her crucial role in the establishment of social services organisation “Centacare Kimberley”. Sr Leone's commitment and contribution to Catholic education and the wider community in the Kimberley has been an inspiration to many.
